

The Advisory Council of the interim government has approved the establishment of embassies in Buenos Aires, the capital of Argentina, and Dublin, Ireland.

The decision came during the 48th meeting of the Advisory Council on Thursday, chaired by Chief Advisor Mohammad Yunus, according to a media statement from his office.

Earlier, on Jun 2, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs had written to the finance ministry seeking administrative approval and the creation of different posts for new diplomatic missions across five countries.